RE: Signal's Industry Leader Safety Award 2008-2009

Dear Mr. Lyons,

Congratulations! The outstanding safety performance of your company during the 2008-2009 Signal Mutual Membership Year has resulted in you being selected to receive the Industry Leader Safety Award.

It is through the dedication to safety by companies like yours that employees are kept safe while at work and return home to their families each day. Your commitment to safety is one of the reasons Signal Mutual has been successful for 25 years.

We would like to present this award to you and your staff personally at your company site, or your designated location. Should you prefer, we can simply send you the safety award. However, some of our past award recipients have taken advantage of this on-site opportunity to have a formal award ceremony with company employees present. Please contact me at your earliest convenience to request a formal presentation.

Congratulations again and we wish you a continued safe and prosperous 2010.

Sincerely,
